GoArt! – Deluxe Fashion Tour (/mustsees/goart-%E2%80%93-deluxe-fashion-tour) ▶

Mitte Tours

If you don't have a stylish, cultured friend to take you shopping in Berlin's most avant-garde designer boutiques and you are too lazy, inexperienced or new in town to know where to start, then your worries are over. GoArt! is a local agency founded by art critics and curators Miriam Bers and Stefano Galdi that offers the expert advice you're looking for. Their diverse services include customized guided fashion tours (you can choose the language, the number of hours etc) through the fascinating world of Berlin designers. A young specialist (often a fashion student) will lead you through Mitte's trendiest streets, mostly around Weinmeisterstr. underground station, straight to those up-and-coming Berlin labels everyone talks about. You'll have personal encounters with Starstyling and Bo Van Melskens, to Bless, Van Reimersdahl and many more.

In the course of your travels, you will hear some pretty interesting stories about their previous lives and present achievements. You can either choose to have your own private tour, specially tailored to your taste or share the experience with a couple of strangers in the public tour for a more affordable rate. If it's more than fashion that you fancy check out Go! Arts selection of tours. You could choose to explore Berlin's art scene, pay studio visits to local artists or peruse the cities varied architecture.
